Living as the Community of God: Moses Speaks to the Church in Deuteronomy Lesson 9 - Deuteronomy 16:18-18:22

1. How do the various leadership roles (priest, judge, king, and prophet) compare and contrast with those roles in the larger world around ancient Israel?
2. Why does power become seductive and often abusive? What are some biblical examples of this tendency for those with power, and what are some biblical examples of proper use of power?
3. Why is it important to recognize the God was Lord and King over Israel and that God in Christ is Lord and King over the church?
4. When we find ourselves in positions of power or influence over others (e.g., elders, managers, parents, officers, etc.), how should we exercise our power in keeping with the picture in Deuteronomy 16:18-18:22 and with the picture of how Jesus exercises his power?
