SYMPATHY

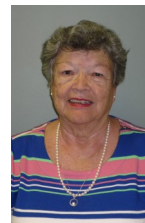

We extend our sympathy to Kathy and David McMurtry in the death of Kathy's brother Ted Flatt. Visitation is today, 5-9 p.m., and tomorrow, 9-10:30 a.m., at High's Funeral Home in McMinnville, TN. A graveside service will be held tomorrow at 11 a.m. at Gardens of Memory in McMinnville.

YOUTH ENCOURAGEMENT SERVICES (YES) invites you to sponsor a child for YES Bible Camp. One week at YES Camp makes a lasting impact on a child from inner city Nashville. Your sponsorship of $95 per child opens endless possibilities for children attending YES Camp. With your contribution, you will sponsor more than a week of fun and friendships that the children will cherish forever and a meaningful difference in the life of a child! Making a contribution that opens up a world of possibilities is easy – visit the website at www.youthencouragement.org or call the YES Office at (615) 315-5333.

Our elders want to be available to pray with you anytime you have a need. At least one elder will be in our prayer room (#302) at the end of each Sunday service. If you would like to pray, just leave the auditorium during the invitation song and come to the prayer room. At other times, feel free to call the office to arrange a meeting.

The Good and Beautiful
Falling in Love with the God Jesus Knows

Lesson 6—God is Holy

Below you will find a description of this week's exercise, which comes from James Bryan Smith's book, The Good and Beautiful God.

Margin (from pp. 128-31):

Holiness is essentially wholeness—a life that works. Sin is dysfunction or sickness. The number one spiritual sickness of our day is “hurry sickness.” We live in a culture that rewards busyness and overextension as signs of importance. We are constantly in a hurry because we have overloaded our schedule. When we lack margin in our lives we become tired and lonely and joyless, which seems to invite temptation. We need margin. Margin restores balance and restores our soul, thus increasing our capacity for joy. Joy is a bulwark against temptation. Margin and holiness are related to one another in very deep ways. When we lack margin, it is our own doing and is a sure sign we have stepped outside the kingdom. So be honest and be ruthless with your schedule. Your spiritual, relational and physical health depend on it.

Here are some ideas for finding margin:

- Get up ten minutes earlier and create space for silence before you begin your day.
- Cut out unnecessary entertainment activities.
- Explore scaling back some of your commitments by asking, “Is it essential?”
- If you do something often (for example, spending time with a friend), consider reducing the frequency without cutting that person out of your life.
- Insert margins of rest and relaxation into your day. Remembering that it is better to be unavailable than inattentive, build some buffer times into your life: make shorter appointments, no back-to-back appointments without a break, or take some deep breaths before you pick up the phone.
