The Good and Beautiful God Falling in Love with the God Jesus Knows

Lesson 9 - How to Make a Pickle

Below you will find a description of this week's exercise, which comes from James Bryan Smith's book, The Good and Beautiful God.

Slowing Down (pp. 189-91)

Slowing down is the way our soul works. Robert Barron says, "The deepest part of the soul likes to go slow, since it seeks to savor rather than to accomplish; it wants to rest in and contemplate the good rather than hurry off to another place." This is your assignment: slow down, savor, rest and contemplate. Slowing down the pace of our lives means eliminating hurry and limiting the demands and activities in our lives. Then we are more likely to take delight in our lives and make room for God.

How to Practice Slowing Down

Think about the activities of the upcoming day. Instead of waiting until the last minute to go to your next activity, try leaving ten minutes early. Walk more slowly. Drive more slowly. When you arrive at your destination a bit earlier than usual, use the extra time to notice people and things around you. Breathe.

Plan a meal with a friend or group of friends. Cook slowly. Enjoy the act and smells of cooking. Linger over your meal, spending an hour or two eating slowly, conversing and enjoying the blessing of food.

Make a whole day a "slow day." Get up a little earlier so you can have time to linger over breakfast. If you are at work, do your work with a slower, more rhythmic pace (assuming your profession allows this; if you need to act quickly, do so without "hurrying"). Cut out TV and all forms of media for the day. Take time to watch a sunset, take a leisurely walk, watch kids play in the park. Sometime later in the evening, sketch out your thoughts about what living a slowed-down life would look like.

When you change speeds your internal system (your soul) will be thrown off its usual pace and feelings of frustration will develop....Your body will be saying, "C'mon, hurry up, step on it, let's go," as it has been trained to do. You will need to die to that inward need. Don't worry—you can do this. It has not killed anyone so far.
