“Senior Year: Developing Your Identity in Christ”

- 1 week Class introduction – goals, roadmap for year, etc. (include a time for students to write a letter to self)
- 8 weeks Study of life of Christ (all gospels with focus on Luke; will include miracles, parables, disruption to religious norm, and personality)
- 1 week Overview of world religions (comparing study of Christ to other world religions)
- 8 weeks Study of early church (focus on Acts with the intent of getting students to examine and compare their lives to the lives of the early church members)
- 10 weeks Application/foundations of living as a disciple
 - 4 weeks Study of Book of James
 - 2 weeks Study of Romans 12-15
 - 2 weeks Study of 1 Corinthians
 - 2 weeks Examination of Holy Spirit
- 8 weeks Navigating the challenges of a broken, lost world... “how do I respond to the questions and trends of this world?”
 - 3 weeks The Bible & Science: How they Fit Together (with guest speaker Alan Bradshaw)
 - 1 week LGBTQ: love or judgement?
 - 1 week Dating and making friends in college
 - 1 week Personal evangelism
 - 1 week Sexuality: in college and after
 - 1 week A disciples’ response to injustices
- 1 week Class summary

*Plans to use snippets of “Crazy Love”, “Case for Christ”, and many media clips.

Overall, the class can be summed up as follows:

- Where are we going this year as a group of believers?
- Who is Jesus Christ... and why do I care?
- How does he compare to other religious figures across the world landscape?
- How did the early church respond to his sacrifice and example?
- How do I actively shape my life in response to Christ? Why should I do so?
- How do I confront and effectively live as a disciple in a broken world?
- How do I answer the questions of an unbelieving world?
- Summarize all we have learned... season of prayer to finish the year. Class guidelines/principles:
 - Class will be discussion oriented with Biblical study at the core
 - Phones will not be permitted
 - Bibles will be brought or handed out
 - Utilize prayer journals at times
 - Devos at Chaffin home will complement in-class efforts to focus on relationship with Christ, community with believers, and service of others
 - Other class events should also complement in-class efforts
