Supporting Foster & Adoptive Families Within the Church

Foster & Adoptive Families need time and energy to establish relationships as welcoming kids from hard places takes longer than just a few days. Often, families need support for months and even years. The church can be a consistent presence throughout the journey. Here's some ways to help...

Supporting Foster & Adoptive Families in the Church Fold laundry Change bed linens Organize a meal brigade • Tidy bathrooms Gift take-out cards • Meals Housework Mow the lawn Make a snack box • Rake leaves Deliver groceries • Complete Honey-dos Make home repairs Drive to and from school Run errands Celebrate milestones Car Service Celebration Celebrate victories Pick up groceries • Drive to after-school • Celebrate growth activities Someone to Childcare Listen Avoid judgement • Take the kids to ice cream · Give parents a night out Check in regularly Help the kids with homework Just listen 4 Educate church staff & volunteers · Be available Send prayer texts • Organize respite providers Parent-Care Encourage Mail funny cards • Drop off a favorite treat Call and offer words of • Organize a Support Group encouragement with childcare