WINTER 2025

JANUARY 5 - MARCH 30

Leave It Better Than You Found It (Jonathan Seamon & Friends) | Reception Room

A study of I and II Timothy that explores the Paul's heartfelt letters to the young preacher, Timothy, offering timeless guidance on leadership, faith, and perseverance. Paul loves Timothy like a son and he encourages him to faithfully guard and grow what has been entrusted to him, ensuring that the church and his faith are strengthened for future generations. A call for each of us to "Leave it Better than we found it."

Interwoven: Exploring Spiritual Perspectives for Your Faith & Family (Jacob and Katie Arthur) | FLC

Discussions on varying topics related to the Spiritual Formation of your children and your own personal relationship with the Lord.

Eyes to See and Ears to Hear (David Graves, Ritchie & Kelly Pickens) | Cedar Room

In this class we will seek to focus our attention on God the Father, Jesus the Son, and Holy Spirit through the created mediums of Art and Music. Visio Divina and Audio Divina are two spiritual practices that can open us up to new ways of "seeing" and "hearing" the Author of Truth, Beauty, and Goodness.

Where We're At: A Walkthrough of Church History (Ethan Lilly & Todd Lilly) | Small Auditorium

A theological history of the Church and the development of the Churches of Christ.

Couples of the Old Testament (The Hagans & The Whitehorns) | Room 502

The Old Testament tells the stories of fascinating men and women in relationship. These stories will lead us to dig deeper into these relationships highlighted in Scripture to learn important lessons about marriage, God, and ourselves.

A Path to Hope (Trey Hartman) | Room 305

It's safe to assume that there are many people at BHCC who are struggling with all kinds of hurt, hang-ups, and habits that have become detrimental to themselves and the people around them. We want them to know that they are not alone and there is a path to hope. This class is also for those who love someone who is in this situation and want to learn more about what is available to help their loved one.

Planning to Live Our Best (Terry Booker & Guest Speakers) | Room 503|505

This class provides resources and solutions that enhance everyday living for ourselves and those we love. Each week professionals from various fields will share valuable information on a variety of situations we face as we age, including: basic human needs, healthcare insurance and options, legal matters, personal finance, fitness and nutrition, living arrangements, spiritual needs, caregiver planning, Alzheimer's and dementia care, and hospice care. People of all ages will find helpful resources through this class.

Circle of Sisters (Susan Hale & Dona Howell) | Room 507

A class for women of all ages

Best Class Ever | Room 504|506

A class for adults with all abilities. The best class ever!

Post College | Room 602
